HOUSE CONFEREES AGREE TO START DAM AT GILVILLE

Believe House Will Pass 2 Million Increase to Begin Project

IF DONE, CONSTRUCTION
WILL BE STARTED SOON

WASHINGTON, May 19.—House conferees agreed today to recommend that the House accept a Senate amendment to the second deficiency bill authorizing start of work on a $112,000,000 TVA dam at Gilbertville, Ky.

The bill carries $40,000,000 for the Tennessee Valley Authority for the 1938 fiscal year, to carry on work on several dams.

As approved by the House the deficiency measure merely authorized further surveys of the Gilbertville project, to be the largest of several TVA power and flood control structures. The Senate added an amendment to authorize start of work.

Conference committee members said agreement was reached on other items. As it passed the Senate the bill called for total appropriations of $81,651,443, approximately $1,500,000 below the House total.

Senator Norris termed the Gilbertville dam a necessary unit in the TVA program. Dr. A. E. Morgan, TVA chairman, has declared that the dam would be worth from $140,000,000 to $180,000,000 as a flood control project. He estimated that it would have reduced the crest of the January flood at Paducah two and a half feet if it had been constructed at that time.

The hydroelectric plant which will be operated in conjunction with the dam will be capable of producing 200,000 kilowatts of electric power, which would be available to a wide territory in Kentucky and adjoining states.

Approval of the House conferees will send the bill to the House floor for a vote of approval of the conferees. When this action is completed, the measure will go to President Roosevelt for his signature.

Your Business WHAT'S THE NEWS?

This week's prize of something or other goes to Harry Sled for a very attractive window. A straw hat window is backgrounded with a sizeable portion of someone's straw stack. The same material is used for headlining the window.

Progressive merchandising is indicated by the left front window of the Regal Shop. You'll discover why we think so when you see it.

Platt's Cleaning and Pressing and Barber shop in Hazel is adding a new department. With the arrival of the latest design of motor driven shoe repair equipment, Mr. Platt expects to open as modern and as efficient a shoe repair shop as can be found in Calloway county.

Not only was the attendance at the Ledger & Times Cooking School distinctly gratifying, it would have been a feature of many years standing but the tangible response to cooperating companies and to local retailers demonstrated the effectiveness of newspaper point-of-buying advertising.

Earl Littleton of Hazel reports a 20 per cent gross increase in sales for April 1937 over April 1936. He claims business renaissance and consistent advertising were responsible. His advertising was carried in The Ledger & Times.

Way Cleared For TVA Development By Court's Action

Dissolution Of Injunction Will Allow Production of Cheap Power

WASHINGTON, May 14.—Official Washington saw in the dissolution today of a Federal Court injunction against TVA expansion a clearing of the way for continued development of the Tennessee valley.

Secretary Ickes, Senators from Tennessee and Kentucky, TVA officials and others identified with the TVA program joined in expressions of gratification.

Ickes, chairman of the administration power policy committee, said the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals' decision dismissing the injunction foreshadowed the end of "Government by injunction."

Senator Kenneth McKellar of Tennessee said the Circuit Court's "quick action" was "very heartening," and the people "should be allowed to have electricity at cheaper rates and as soon as possible."

"I hope the opponents of the TVA," he added, "will now permit the work to go on without further appeals to the courts."

Senator George L. Berry of Tennessee said he was "delighted beyond measure" at the decision, and felt it "practically opens the whole way for development of the Tennessee valley."

Senator Logan of Kentucky expressed pleasure at the decision, and said he had felt the injunction had been granted unjustly.

Representative E. B. Bankin of Tupelo, Miss., said he hoped the Circuit Court ruling would "put an end to the efforts of certain loose Federal Court judges to exercise their arbitrary powers" against the TVA.

Washington offices of the TVA, estimating the TVA had lost approximately $2,000,000 in revenue since Judge John J. Gore granted the injunction, expressed "particular delight" over the Circuit Court ruling.

Senator Alben W. Barkley of Kentucky said he was "highly pleased" at the Circuit Court decision. He said it meant the TVA could proceed to develop the valley "as contemplated by the act of Congress, and dispose of its surplus power to the communities in a position to use it."

SOIL BUILDING IS EXPLAINED TO 599

Applications for 25 Tons Phosphate at 19 Meetings;
Blakeley Leads

Nineteen meetings were held last week explaining the soil building allowance for the farms of the county. The total attendance for these meetings was 599 with an average of 31.5 at each meeting.

Applications were received for 49,200 pounds of 43% phosphate at these meetings. The largest amount that was applied for at any one meeting was at Blakeley, where the total application exceeded 9,000 pounds. There are many other farmers in the county who should use phosphate, according to experiments which have been made in Calloway county.

Last year there were 17 lime and phosphate demonstrations in the county. The average yield of wheat on 17 check plots that received no lime or phosphate was 2.5 bu. per acre. The average yield where lime was used was 6 bu. per acre. Where phosphate was used alone the yield was 9 bu. per acre and where lime and phosphate both were used the yield was 19.5 bu. per acre.

Applications will be received at the office of the county agent anytime. The supply of triple superphosphate may reach the same situation that the lime did last year. Order early if the soil building allowance for the farm has not been earned.

Kirksey 4-H Clothing Project

By Mary M. Radford

The girls in the 4-H clothing project had their last April meeting on the 28th. All but one of the members were present. At this meeting we made May baskets. We also learned how to make a paper drinking cup.

The leader talked about the prevalence of measles and told us the indications and the importance of proper care of the patient during illness, in order to prevent serious after-effects. Three of our members have had measles, but two of them are back with us now.

Our project group put on the April program at the general meeting at school. All our members but two were present. Those two had measles and were unable to attend.

Esq. W. A. Patterson Announces For Judge of Calloway County

Esq. W. A. "Bill" Patterson, all his lifetime one of Calloway county's most industrious, loyal and progressive citizens, today makes his formal announcement for the Democratic nomination for County Judge of Calloway County in the August primary.

In a frank and candid statement, Mr. Patterson outlines the policies which he expects to follow and his plans for the development and benefit of Calloway county if elected. His friends declare that it is a model of a sincere and specific platform for this important office.

Though Esq. Patterson is too well known to every citizen in the county, it is nonetheless appropriate at this time to remind them that in every way he has fulfilled the highest obligations of citizenship in many official as well as unofficial capacities.

He has served capably, honorably and energetically in the offices of school trustee, road supervisor, two terms as magistrate, once as a young man and again in 1930-33 and sheriff of the county from 1914 to 1918.

Esq. Patterson was one of the charter members of the East Hickory Grove Church of Christ in 1911 and has been an elder in the church since that time. He is also a member of the Woodmen of the World and of Murray Lodge No. 105, F. & A. M.

Though he was born in Henry county, Tenn., near Buchanan, Mr. Patterson moved to this county with his parents while just nine years old and has since resided continuously in the Concord district. He was the son of James A. Patterson, one of the finest and most influential citizens of this county, who lived to the age of 89.

Esq. Patterson's life, both public and private, has been characterized by a high sense of honor and integrity; a dependable frankness and sincerity and elative energy and ability.

He has always been particularly interested in good roads as well as other improvements for the general welfare and pledges his wholehearted efforts toward their construction. His statement follows:

In offering myself as a candidate for County Judge, I realize the responsibility of the office. This is one of the most important offices in your county. I have been connected with your fiscal affairs in different ways, having served eight years a magistrate of Concord district, four years as your sheriff, and two years as chairman of your War Board. Your local board made in this county the second best record in the United States. I have spent my life as a business man and farmer. I am sure I have worked and helped as many laboring men as any man in Calloway County, having worked for 21 years on a salary for one of the largest tile companies in the United States. I have operated saw mills, and logging camps in five counties. By this experience I should know the ways of labor. Having made and hauled cross ties I know how the broad ax and timber sledge fits a laboring man's hand. I know the singing of the cross-cut and circular saw, how overalls fit and hip boots feel.

I am for getting all money possible from the Federal government for public improvements and progressive measures, and for a new jail. Our present jail is unsanitary and does not meet the requirements of this, a progressive county. I am for Farm-to-Market roads so the farmer and business men can get in and out to market at all times. The mail routes should be made modern and graveled as fast as possible, pledging myself to work with the State and Federal agencies to get all money possible that is due Calloway County in its allotment for public measures. Having had experience in building your highways, your public roads and your bridges gives me a knowledge of the practical cost of same. Public money should be spent as honestly and fairly as private capital, paying for material and labor a fair and just price, demanding in return an honest job without graft.

I am for good schools, churches and all public and progressive measures; good roads which are the medium of transportation from farms to market. When farmers are prosperous and merchants have good business our towns grow. Let us have better roads, modern bridges and a united pull to get Calloway County out of the mud.

In this campaign I am running on such qualifications as I may have; not the demerits of any one. The State constitution does not require any one to be a lawyer, preacher or professor as qualifications for your county judge, but a man of practical experience, with good common sense and practical judgment honestly applied can be your judge. If you elect me your judge I will make mistakes, but not the same one twice, had as soon make two mistakes trying as one not to try. If I should not be able to see every voter, I am asking every voter, both ladies and men to give me an honest consideration, and no one will be more thankful for your support. I cannot buy this office and will have to depend on my friends to help me; asking bankers, business men, farmers and all class of laboring men and women to give me your vote, and if you elect me you have only hired me as your judge and you will own me, and I will not own the county.

I was on the board of magistrates that bought the first road grader and have tried to help blaze the trail for good roads at all times. If I should not see you personally, don't feel slighted for it is a big task to canvass the county, and only a custom that would be better for all candidates and the people if left off. The people of this county have been very thankful, and I am thankful to the voters of Concord district which always gave me a majority vote. This is something to be prized above all things. I do not represent any political group or faction and if you will elect me I will be free to serve you and all interests alike. If you look well into the fiscal affairs of your county some experience might be considered at this time. I am asking you to consider my qualifications and to vote for me and no one will be more thankful for your support and influence.

W. A. PATTERSON.

Faxon Facets

Summer is really here. The birds are beginning to nest. I saw a summer tanager and a scarlet tanager in the same tree last Thursday week at Metropolis Lake. Spirea, iris, and tulips are about gone, but peonies, syringa, and roses are gorgeous. Straw and dew berries are in profuse bloom. If the old saying about the free bloom of dogwood and red-bud (Judas tree) is a good sign, we will have a good crop year.

Spring gardens have about recovered from the heavy rains and hail of recent weeks. Where soil is dry enough, farmers are busily breaking and ordering ground and planting summer gardens.

The County Dads had begun a much-needed piece of work in graveling the school road, interrupted by the deluge of two weeks ago. Of course one is never satisfied, but why not some concrete bridges, like those on the new roads around Almo? And why did they not cut down some of those dangerous angles and hills? This is the first road ever to lead to Faxon High School in its 14 years of existence. Of course, one is duly thankful for the patches of gravel dumped down in the middle of the narrow road, even if one does have to take the grader dig to let the school buses pass.

This farm is lonely without the frail little mother, who has gone to her elder son in Centralia, Ill., for a month. It would be more lonely still without the merry, meddlesome two-year-old niece.

In fact, life would be insipid without the love and patience of age and the love and promise of youth.

The preacher took dinner in this house yesterday, as one might guess, by the lingering smell of roses, pie, and cake, and by the hats, gloves, and purses hastily discarded to set out the lunch. He and a dear uncle and Elder and his family stayed until evening indulging in good talk, very satisfying to this scribe because they proved to be marvelous listeners. They raced the setting sun with their Fords.

I thank the "Admiral of the Tennessee" for a copy of that unusual little paper, the "Model Star."

I am afraid this letter will not make the mail today. Too many interruptions! After the sister-in-law had got off early to the mill to get three bushels of chops for the chickens—a neighbor—engaged—brother in a horse swap, the proceedings of which I must watch from my desk. Then the farm insurance agent came to renew the expiring policy and add the new farm buildings and livestock. When I returned to my desk, the busy little niece had decorated the pages in her own baby fashion with handy pencil.

Misses Irene and Carrie Brandon are expected to return today from a ten-day visit with their sister, Mrs. Laura Travis, Detroit. They made the trip with Mr. and Mrs. Daniel McKee, Mr. Travis's mother and father.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Walston and Jeanette spent the week end with Mr. Walston's mother, who has been quite sick at her home in Almo.

Mrs. Ethel Collier, who returned from Detroit for Miss Virginia's graduation at Faxon High School, was accompanied back by her daughter and by Miss Mabelle Terry, a junior at Faxon. Miss Terry, we are informed, got a secretarial position, for the summer, the next day after returning home.

Friendship Church of Christ is fortunate to have preaching four Sundays in this month. On first Sunday the young brother, Henry Hargis, who was visiting with his sisters in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Falwell, came with his hosts to worship with us. He was invited to talk, and he preached a good sermon to an unusually small assembly. He was invited to return Thursday, Sunday. He preached a splendid sermon to a good audience.

L. H. Pogue will fill his regular appointment on Fourth Sunday and Elder Garvin Curd, who held his first revival meeting at Frinedshope and who is a valued friend of almost everyone in the community, has been invited to fill the pulpit on Fifth Sunday. Professor Oren Folwell, who some months ago preached his first sermon in his home church, also plans to attend with Mrs. Folwell, while visiting over the week-end in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. P. Folwell. Mr. Folwell preaches for three congregations in and around Chattanooga, Tenn.

Mr. and Mrs. Dannie Edwards of Murray attended church Sunday while visiting in the home of her niece, Mrs. Crawford McClure.

Sugar Creek Baptist Church is having an interesting series of community singing on Saturday nights. Mr. Willard Gordon and his quartet are leading the part singing. Good crowds and good singing prevail.

Miss Relma Ross, a sophomore in Faxon High School, and who was forced to withdraw from school during the winter because of poor health, is recovering nicely from a recent tonsilectomy. Her many friends wish for her a speedy and complete recovery of her wanted health.

Mrs. Katherine Hale and her three children, who are living in the upstairs apartment of the Golden Ragsdale home, plan to entrain for Detroit the latter part of the week. Her husband, Geo. S. Hale, has a good position, since returning after his winter's illness.

If death continues to decimate our medical profession at the recent rate, then we should soon lack medical aid as much as many other rural areas. In an Indiana home a few years ago, someone remarked the scarcity of doctors in most rural areas of the Nation and state that many counties had only one doctor, or not any. They were amazed when I counted off to them more than twenty doctors within Calloway County, besides four or five druggists, then their four dentists, the opticians, and others. Now I doubt there are half the former number of practitioners. Although Murray College, only a state teachers' college, has kept the tradition by developing a large pre-med department, only two native sons have in recent years set up to practice in Murray.

"Eagle," I'll try to be Johnny-on-the-Spot, Saturday, May 29, North side Court Square, 1:00 P. M. I hope all the other correspondents can be there too. I would suggest each has four or five of his favorite clippings published since June 1, 1936. Have your name and address, the publication, and the date of publication attached to each clipping.

I am sending the rules of the contest and two clippings from the first winner to the Ledger & Times office. The magazine has each month published a short article by her for the two years. It is not high-brow or scholastic stuff that is adjudged best, but that which shows the most warm human interest and understanding of your rural community, I think. Women have won both years, one from the Ozarks and the other from Blue Earth, Minnesota.—Ail

D. B. Young, Grayson county, has built terraces on a 33-acre field on which he will plant corn, followed by wheat and grasses.

Spray Time Here

It's spray time again for apples. In fact, it's spray time most any time this rainy weather but the better growers are spraying again now, May 14, and will continue for the next few days, weather permitting. An approved spray for apples is as follows:

Formula No. 1
3 quarts lime sulfur
1 1/2 lb. arsenate lead
3 lb. hydrated lime

Formula No. 2
(Not as apt to burn)
1/2 gallon lime sulfur
2 1/2 lb. wettable sulfur
1 1/2 lb. arsenate lead
3 lb. hydrated lime

If peaches have not been sprayed at least once before, it's time now to spray as follows:

To 50 gallons of water, add
2 lb. arsenate lead
2 1/2 lb. lime
1 lb. zinc sulfate.

Don't fail to protect your crop as a wonder crop of peaches and apples are in the making.

Two Bell county farmers contributed 15 bushels of certified seed corn for use by 75 4-H club members.

Rockcastle county farmers lost only about 5 baby chicks to a hundred.

A Salesman's Plan

A VERY SUCCESSFUL SALESMAN has worked out a plan that is making money for him.

His traveling expenses each month are a little more than $150, so the first thing he does each month is to see how quickly he can earn his traveling expense money.

Miller and Wyatt Plays In Band At Cotton Carnival

Two local boys, Max Miller and Marshall Wyatt were honored recently when they were invited by Director Doran, Paris, Tenn., to join his band for a performance at the Cotton Carnival in Memphis.

They accepted and played Friday afternoon and Saturday night. While there they were guests of the Claridge Hotel and had the privilege of hearing Art Castle and his orchestra on the roof garden.

They also have been asked to play at the Strawberry Carnival. Both boys are talented musicians. Miller a trombonist now with the Murray High School band, and Wyatt a drum major in the college band. This recognition is deserved and their friends appreciate it.

Bob Noel Captures Murray Net Crown

Bob Noel did it again! For the third consecutive season, this steady stroking Somerset star took away the intramural tennis championship of Murray State College, and successfully defended his ranking Number One position on the varsity tennis team from the bid by Harry Basan, hard-driving Henderson boy, who had to stage a series of upsets before he entered the finals of the meet. Fifty-four men were entered in the meet.

Noel defeated Basan 6-0, 6-1.

Noel, who holds two victories over Charlie Coleman, Number 1 man on the Centre College team, will oppose Ralph Dudgeon in the feature matches of the Murray-

Western matches that will be played in Bowling Green, May 21 and in Murray, May 25. Other matches will be Shirley Ayers—Harris Basan; Sam Allen—Pat Wear; Paul Smith—Jimmie Lassiter; and James Deller—Tom Atwell, Bill Cutchin, or Hastings Kenney. The doubles matches will be between Dudgeon and Ayers—Noel and Lassiter; and Basan and Wear against Allen and Smith, of Western.

In Loving Memory of Dr. E. B. Houston
No longer you'll pass through the hall,
And no more will we hear your footsteps,
Never again will you make a call.

No longer you'll smilingly greet
The ones whom you've been accustomed
For many years to meet.

We feel sure of the fact you have gained
A home in that beautiful Country
Where there are no sorrows or pains.

With many a tear and a sigh,
We've looked on your face here,
For the last time,
And reluctantly said, "Good-bye."

CHURCH OF CHRIST
Lord's day: Bible study at 9:45; preaching at 10:30 and 7:30 o'clock. Young people's Bible class at 6:30 p. m.

Wednesday: Bible class for ladies at 2 p. m., prayer meeting at 7:30 p. m.

Church history up to the giving of government protection will be discussed at the morning service. The early church had a head-on collision with the Greek and Roman teachers; and for a while, it was in conflict with the Roman government. It did not survive these conflicts unscathed. Many brought their Pagan notions and ideas into the church with them. Some persisted in those ideas until now. We ought to select only that which was given by inspiration and be content with it.

METHODIST CHURCH NOTES

The pastor will preach at the morning hour.

Our children and young people meet at 7 p. m. for their service. We will be glad to welcome you to our church home if you are not identified with any church in Murray.

215 In Calloway Get Old Age Pensions Totaling $2,128.50 in April

During the month of April 215 recipients of old age assistance in Calloway County received a total of $2,128.50, according to the records of the office of Dr. A. V. Lloyd, Director of Public Assistance in the State Department of Welfare. These monthly assistance checks not only aid the old people in this county, but also have a beneficial effect upon business in general. All of this money is immediately used to pay the merchant for food and clothing, the doctor for medicine and professional service, the landlord for rents, and for other necessities of these recipients of old age assistance, thereby increasing the amount of money circulating in the community.

Over the entire State, 24,887 eligible, needy aged Kentuckians received $248,456.30 during the month of April making the average grant approximately $10.00 per recipient. At the present time Kentucky ranks thirty-first among the other states in number of recipients of old age assistance in proportion to the population over sixty-five years of age. This shows remarkable progress when it is considered that in both August and September of 1936 Kentucky ranked at the bottom of the list of States. In the latest report from the Social Security Board, Kentucky ranks above such states as New York, Connecticut, Florida, Vermont, Alabama, New Jersey, and others that have had old age assistance laws much longer than this State. Governor Chandler has been anxious that every eligible old person in Kentucky receive a grant of assistance, but has insisted upon thorough investigation in compliance with the law. The steady progress of the old age assistance program in Kentucky in contrast

Judge Hale in B. G. School for 45 Weeks

Due to a typographical error, The Ledger & Times stated last week that Judge C. A. Hale, candidate for representative, attended the Western State Normal School in Bowling Green five weeks when the correct figure should have been 45 weeks.

The Ledger & Times regrets this error, which was of course unintentional.

"THE MOONSTONE" IS SENIORS' PLAY

Wilkie Collins' Mystery Will Be Presented May 27 at Auditorium

"A thing of beauty is a joy forever." That expression may easily be paraphrased—"A thing of genius is a joy forever." How often this truism is confirmed by a perusal of some masterpiece which, in spite of the passage of time, still retains its pristine vigor and charm.

In such a category naturally would fall Wilkie Collins' famous mystery novel, "The Moonstone". Collins' work pulsates with indelible genius and his adroit technique has provided a pattern which has scarcely, if ever, been surpassed.

"The Moonstone", has been accorded a dramatic adaptation, and those who enjoy the sheer delight of pitting wits against baffling enigmas, or who respond keenly to thrills, shocks and mounting suspense, should not fail to attend the presentation of "The Moonstone", to be given by the senior class of Murray High school at the school auditorium at 7:45 p. m. May 27.

The cast is as follows: Eleanor Gattin, Mary Elizabeth Roberts, Sadie Nell Jones, Harold Gilbert, James Thurmond, Thomas Earl Martin, Rudolph Colson, O. J. Sparks, Mary Mays, Mary Frances Perdue, Anna Lee Farley, Frances Wilford, Charlotte Owen, Thomas Ross Sammons, and Martin Province.

The Homecoming at Mt. Hebron last Sunday was a success in every particular. The Rev. E. V. Underhill filled his regular appointment at 11 o'clock after which a bountiful dinner was spread and all enjoyed the delicious repast.

Bro. Miller said that during his ministerial work that he had only lost three Sundays and then on account of sickness. That is a fine record.

"Dan Talbot Day" To Be Celebrated

Homefolk of Nelson County and the Fourth Kentucky Congressional District have set aside Monday, May 31, to celebrate "Dan Talbot Day" and have invited from all of the counties in the Commonwealth all of the friends of J. Dan Talbot, Commissioner of Finance, to gather in Bardonia on the spacious lawn of "My Old Kentucky Home" and be their guests at an all day festival and picnic.

Governor A. B. Chandler will head the list of speakers who are on the afternoon program, following the picnic lunch at 12:00 o'clock noon. "Farmer Governor" J. C. W. Beckham, a native of Bardonia, also is on the program and short talks will be made by many other celebrities who are to be present.

The committee in charge stressed the fact that it would be impossible to extend a personal invitation to each one of Mr. Talbot's friends in the State and asked, through the medium of the press, that every friend of his in the State, be notified of the invitation to them.

Rev. Poyner. Burial was in the church graveyard.

The pallbearers were Gordon Crouch, Jesse Story, Neely Wright, Boss Story, T. C. Arnett and Nix Meyers.

Don't Swelter These Coming Hot Months

SCIENCE ends DANGER of hot homes!

New discovery reduces temperature up to 15° on hottest days

FROM the Johns-Manville laboratories has come an amazing new insulation, a light, fluffy wool-like substance that is actually blown from rock. It looks like cotton, but is a pure mineral, with all the characteristics of its stony origin—clean, fireproof, vermin-proof, permanent, odorless.

When installed in your attic floor or ceiling, it forms a heat-proof barrier more than 5 inches thick. Results are astounding. Hot homes become delightfully cool, and you can depend on savings up to 30% on your fuel bills in winter. Experts agree that only full wall thickness rock wool will protect homes against heat and cold in a truly scientific way.

Phone us today, and let us tell you how little it will cost to make your home really livable every day in the year. There is no obligation.

HEADQUARTERS for HOME IMPROVEMENTS

Perhaps you are thinking of making an extra room in wasted attic space; remodeling your bathroom or kitchen; putting on a new roof. These and hundreds of other practical ideas form a vital part of our service and are explained and pictured for your convenience in the free J-M 101 book shown along side.

The Cooking School What Now Little

The Ledger & Times is naturally deeply gratified over the success of the first Motion Picture Cooking School ever shown in Murray and very sincerely grateful to the good women of the city and county for their fine co-operation in making it so. It was the first time the weekly newspapers in the smaller towns have ever sponsored a cooking school and the immense success of the undertaking, not only here but elsewhere, insures it as a permanent institution.

This newspaper would also like to express publicly its deep appreciation to the management and personnel of the Capitol Theatre for their splendid part in putting over the school, making the ladies as comfortable as possible and in contributing, in every respect, to the immense success of the school. To those ladies who were not able to see the picture we assure them that they missed a fine feature and we know that after hearing the good reports of the picture they will be sure not to miss the next motion picture cooking school that is sure to come.

It was regretted that the picture had to be shown in the morning but no other time was available and we are particularly gratified and appreciative that the ladies turned out in such great numbers as such an inconvenient hour. We trust that they feel amply repaid for their efforts.

This little newspaper has no finer nor more loyal friends than the women of Murray and Calloway county and it knows that it will always have their co-operation and assistance in any project of merit. Again we thank you.

for almost 2 years to most Kentuckians able to read newspapers and to own radio receiving sets that Governor Chandler intends eliminating the evils of the State's penal and charitable institutions as fast and as efficiently as possible. The Chandler administration, aided by federal funds and authorities, has made a remarkable beginning on this gigantic task. Few if any citizens of this State question either the integrity of the purpose of Governor Chandler in this matter.

The Messrs. Bingham, senior and junior, have the ear of the Governor. If they had any suggestions regarding what should be done, either about new buildings for the asylums or new methods of conducting them, they could have told the Governor and he would have listened attentively. They could have produced their experts on modern treatment of insanity cases and these too would have had an earnest listener in the Governor.

Big Boys?

Kentucky's biggest newspaper, until recently in favor of Governor Chandler and everything he was doing and trying to do, latterly has been attempting, as is its normal inclination, to tell the young chief executive what to do and how to do it. We believe the Governor to be just big enough to go his own way, despite the Bingham-owned papers, and if he does we, along with just about every other Kentucky newspaper which has the courage of its convictions and the guts to stick up for them, will like Happy Chandler better than ever.

First, the C-J fell out with the Governor (the first Kentucky governor it has been friendly to in many years) about the jailer-sheriff law. Bingham and Co. lost that argument.

Next, the C-J and Times started harping on the Harlan county mess, aired in Washington before Senator LaFollette's senate committee, telling the Governor it was his duty to clean up. In one fell swoop—and without a moment's delay, a situation which has existed through several administrations and which is impossible for Chandler, or any other mere man, to correct in a day—or a good many days.

Latterly, the Bingham-controlled newspapers, never for anything in the last generation, excepting only a State audit and Happy Chandler, have launched a campaign which on the surface, would seem to call for immediate and sweeping correction of conditions in the State's insane asylums by Governor Chandler—the job to be done their way.

It has been perfectly apparent

the reading public is growing tired of such tactics. All who are even fairly conversant with past performances of the two Louisville papers, under Bingham, know that once their policy against something or somebody is fixed, they cannot find enough superlative mean things to say, in print, nor print that sort of thing often enough, tho they have ever so many editions each day.

In short, little or no judgment is used, the same ground is covered time and time again, recrimination follows recrimination until the whole thing appears silly to the unbiased mind.

As witness the manner in which the C-J and Times tried by every means in their power to convict General Denhardt before his case went to trial.

We do not believe the C-J and Times will succeed in persuading Governor Chandler to make a fool of himself in the Harlan county mess.

We do not believe the Bingham harangue, prolonged and painful tho it be, will prevail to alter the Governor's course in the matter of the asylum program, which is in the best hands possible, according to our lights—certainly is safe from graft and corruption under Frederick A. Wallis.

We do not know what the C-J and Times are driving at latterly when they seem determined to desert the young man they recently so ardently supported, but we will make this prediction without the slightest fear of being confounded by the big city press or any other agency: Governor Chandler will hew to the line of his program for the State, will accomplish a major portion of what he set out to do as Governor, will emerge at the end of his term a vastly bigger figure than when, as a forlorn hope and because they had nowhere else to go, the Bingham-owned newspapers joined his supporters in 1935.—Lyon County Herald.

Driving down to Pine Bluff Saturday afternoon for the fish fry given by the highway workers of Calloway county, the Jotter was naturally impressed with the splendid condition of the Pine Bluff road; far and away in the best shape it has ever been in all its history.

The road's smooth surface is a high tribute to the efficiency and pride-in-their-work of the maintenance force in Calloway county and now a real pleasure for motorists to drive in reaching one of Calloway county's cleanest and most enjoyable pleasure spots.

The good ladies who prepared the fish fry fairly outdid themselves. Everything was good and the crowd showed its approval by napping up with the whole works.

Nothing so beautiful, so serene, so soothing to the soul as a quiet, well-kept country graveyard and church. Nothing so impressive, so restive as the silent communion with Nature and the Creator as when those whose loved ones are buried there, meet to pay homage to the dead and their memories with beautiful flowers. Such was the annual Decoration Day at Martin's Chapel last Sunday. For many years it has been the custom of these unexcelled people to have this appropriate Decoration Day on the Third Sunday in May.

Home Management House at College is Completed

On April 20 of this year, Murray State College's new Home Management House, a beautiful Georgian type home, was ready to accommodate all senior home economics majors, who must live there for nine weeks of their senior year and keep house.

A lovely place it is in which to live. Mrs. P. W. Ordway, head of the home economics department, directed the furnishing, and, seemingly, left nothing lacking.

The floors are blocked hardwood; all woodwork is white. The living room has a suite of open blue against a beige and white striped wall, and contrasting chairs in gold and rust. Hammered brass armchairs, wood basket, fire set, and trimmed screen help make an attractive fireplace in one end of the living room. All lamps are white and all lighting fixtures carry out the kerose lamp motif.

Black and chromium make up the furniture of the sunporch, while green trimmed white enamel makes up the front porch. The living room is in Duncan-Phyllis and Hepplewhite, and the breakfast room in maple.

A kitchen of the most modern type is that found in the new practice house. It is equipped with a complete electric stove and refrigerator, and has cabinets built against one end of the wall. White is the dominating color with a few black and red touches to relieve the monotony.

The second floor consists of four bed-rooms, two baths, and a study. The baths are of green, beige, and cream tile, and with built-in tubs and showers. The bed rooms are in pink, blue, and coral. The coral room contains Old English furniture; it is occupied by Miss Evelyn Slayter, resident instructor.

The house is air-conditioned and has an individual hot air system.

TEA LEAVES IN THE RAW ARE ALWAYS GREEN

It's The Way They're Manufactured That Makes The Difference

Like most other people, you've probably always thought that green tea and black tea were two separate and distinct species of the tea family. If such has been the case you and most of the other people have been all wrong. It was all explained to us the other day by an expert of special time during the process of manufacturing. If it is to be green tea this step is left out. This fermentation period is what turns these leaves black and distinguishes them from their green brothers and sisters.

Black and green tea leaves are blood brothers and sisters. They both start life green on the same bushes. It's the difference in their respective upbringing that makes one the black tea of the family and leaves the other green.

When they are very young, tea leaves are plucked from the bushes and the process of making them presentable for your tea party begins. At this point in a tea leaf's life it is decided whether it shall be brought up to be a black tea or a green tea. If it is to be a black tea it is allowed to ferment at a special time during the process of manufacturing. If it is to be green tea this step is left out. This fermentation period is what turns these leaves black and distinguishes them from their green brothers and sisters.

In the tea family there is no stigma attached to being either a black member or a green member of the family. If they have been looked after from start to finish by experts such as Lipton's, they will be of equally high standing in tea circles and your taste, not their color, will decide which one is to receive your particular favor.

AN ARGUMENT FOR ALTITUDE
It's long been an established fact among tea authorities that finest quality tea is grown on highest plantations.

Among the first to realize this was Sir Thomas Lipton, world prominent plantation owner and packager of Yellow Label Tea. Lipton's tea gardens are among the highest in the world—just as Lipton's Tea is internationally known for superlative flavor and unvarying fine quality.

NOVELTIES TO GAIN INTEREST ARE OFFERED

"The Eye Eats First" is opinion of home economics expert

Stimulating dishes that stir the imagination are the need of the day, according to Mary Ellis Ames, Director of Pillsbury's Cooking Service. Pillsbury's Best Flour is used exclusively in "The Motion Picture Cooking School."

"The eye eats first, and more and more home makers are coming to realize the necessity of producing a meal the very sight of which stirs the appetite," Mrs. Ames declares.

Hot Breads Excellent

Every housewife knows the value of serving hot breads to dress up a meal of left-overs, such as a casserole dish or savory stew. It's the woman who trains herself to make the food appear important who can serve the simple, inexpensive dishes and have the family enthusiastic. The "balanced" quick-bread recipes included in the recipe folder packed in each bag of Pillsbury's Best Flour are an inspiration to every home maker.

These recipes have been carefully developed and proved by Mrs. Ames before being released to the public. The folders cover a wide range of baking—cookies, meal-in-one dishes, cakes, pies, etc.—And speaking of pies—Mrs. Ames offers practical advice on this subject.

Real Test of Pie

The real test of a pie is the pastry, no matter what filling is used, according to Mrs. Ames, who points to the success of the Pillsbury kitchen in developing a few simple rules. These enable the housewife to have uniformly successful results with pastry.

Flaky, light pastry is attained if a few simple rules are followed. The amount of shortening combined properly with the flour, just the right amount of water, and gives the dough the least possible handling.

For a flaky pie crust use a good, solid, cold shortening and only as much water as is needed to hold the mixture together. The dough must be handled quickly and lightly.

BAKING ART TO BE PRESENTED Pillsbury Participates in Movie Cooking School

Better cakes with less worry and work—that's the demand of home makers everywhere today. They want to produce a cake which will win the approval of every member of the family and add to their laurels as a cake baker among their friends.

Not long ago, a woman wrote a friendly note to Mary Ellis Ames, Director of Pillsbury's Cooking School.

"I recently discovered Pillsbury's Sno Sheen Cake Flour," her letter read. "For years I was proud of the fact that I was acknowledged as a maker of good cakes. Then, one day a friend told me of Sno Sheen and the extra-fine cakes she had baked with it. I tried it—and I'll never be without it again."

Fine cakes aren't the exception—they're the rule—with a fine flour such as Pillsbury's Sno Sheen Cake Flour, which is used in the Motion Picture Cooking School.

The reason for this is simple. The millers realized that women wanted a fine cake flour. The laboratory technicians went to work. It was found that a blend of certain soft wheats, milled to velvety fineness, was the best for the baking of fine cakes. So each year Pillsbury purchases the best soft wheats available, puts the experience of many years of research into the production of a super-fine flour, and Sno Sheen is the result.

Mason Hospital Extends Thanks

We wish, through the columns of The Ledger & Times to express our sincere appreciation to the hundreds of friends who united in making the National Hospital Day and our grand opening of the William Mason Memorial Hospital, such a pleasant success. We feel grateful, indeed, to those who donated so freely of their time and means in making the celebration a real success and in contributing material articles that will be so useful in bringing comfort to the sick in the institution.

As this institution continues to minister to the needs of the sick, we are deeply conscious of the fact that such unselfish ministry on the part of the institution is made possible by the loyal backing, public-spirited men and women.

We appreciate the beautiful flowers, various gifts more than can be expressed in words. We are thankful for the public-spirited fellow citizens who are furnishing memorial rooms in the hospital which means much in the direction of providing the greatest possible comfort for the patients in the institution. We say a hearty "thank you."

3400 GIVEN TB TEST IN COUNTY

Survey Completed, Showing Average Infection of 14%

The tuberculosis survey which has been under way in Calloway county for some time has been completed. The survey was made by Dr. J. B. Floyd, of the State Health Department, and nurses, also from the state department.

The tuberculosis executives tested some 3400 persons composed of seven groups. They were as follows: 26 one room schools, 7 township schools, Murray High, the Training School, and Murray colored school, Murray State College and teachers of all schools; food handlers, contacts of TB patients, and a miscellaneous group of 100 waiting the test not under these other groups.

From the groups tested the average infection was 14%. The average incidence of infection of the school was 9%; that of the rural schools was 12%, as compared with that of the town schools of about 9%. The teachers tested showed a positive reaction of 35%.

The tests given were made by placing a drop of liquid called tuberculin within the upper surface of the skin either by a tiny scratch or by injection. This is harmless. If the spot became red and slightly swollen within two or three days it meant that tuberculosis germs were somewhere in the body. The small red reaction area disappears and leaves no scar or other effects. The positive test means that only tuberculosis germs have, at some time entered the body. It does not tell how many are there or if any damage has been done. With this examination a positive reaction should be followed by a consultation to examine and find the germs, if any, and follow treatment of your family physician.

The contact groups showed the highest incidence of infection. By this it can readily be surmised that tuberculosis is a family disease and is contracted through living with people having the disease.

The survey employed modern methods to find and control tuberculosis before it is advanced. Two major incentives were stressed in the prevention of tuberculosis as well as the steps to curb the disease. They were: protect from further infection, and build up body resistance.

The death rates from tuberculosis in Calloway county for 1935 was 90.6, as compared with 76.2 for the state as a whole. The control of tuberculosis depends on protection from further infection, and modern means of controlling the present cases before advance stages.

The x-ray clinic was held at the college health office as a final step in the survey. The x-ray diagnosis of persons examined is being sent the family physician and it is hoped that they will carry out his instruction in the treatment prescribed.

The nurses visited some 200 homes in Calloway county in an effort to teach the importance of preventing early exposure and to stress regular hygienic habits.

Those working on this survey expressed their appreciation of the cooperation shown while they were making the survey and especially did they express their thanks and appreciation to the Mothers Club, the Woman's Club and other civic organizations that cooperated so heartily in the task.

MURRAY HIGH SCHOOL

By Clara Waldrop

In the intramural softball contests the seniors won first place. They defeated their lower classmen after several hard fought games.

On Wednesday, May 12, which is recognized as Hospital Day, our band gave a concert at the Mason Hospital. It was a beautiful day and the program was very enjoyable. The oranges tasted very, very good to us!

Last but not at all least was the junior-senior banquet held Saturday night at 7 p. m. in the high school gym. It was the opening of the Murray High Night Club, and what an opening. Every one was there. The gym was decorated beautifully. It was an old fashioned garden made of roses and honeysuckle. There were individual tables, that is, there were only four at a table. Gene Duane was toastmaster. He opened the night club with a bang.

Mr. W. B. Mosier gave the invocation. Then waitresses, home economics girls, served a delightful dinner with Miss Marguerite Holcomb as supervisor.

The Murray High quartet, the Melodians and Miss Jane Jones furnished the music of the evening.

Billy Puckett and John L. Roach raided the club and accused the senior president, Milburn Provine, of being the man they were looking for. Rebecca Robertson gave such a good defense for the seniors in her toast to them that he was freed. They then proceeded to arrest a junior, Phil Cutchin, but Milburn Provine's toast to the juniors saved them.

The seniors presented Miss Frances Sexton, junior sponsor, a box of gorgeous roses.

The law then arrested Mr. Capling and all the faculty as being their man but Mac Coleman gave such a good speech for them that they were also permitted to go free.

Mr. Filbeck then made a speech and Mr. Capling followed him with a few remarks.

The night club closed with several songs sung by all and led by Mr. Crane.

It was one of the loveliest banquets ever given and a toast should be given all those connected with it.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The financial committee of the Westminster Foundation of the synod of Kentucky is planning to use the local minister, Mr. Maguire, as a speaker in the campaign to raise funds to erect a Presbyterian Church across from the college campus. For this reason there will be no service of the Presbyterian Church during the month of May. Those who have been worshipping with this group are requested to attend the services of another of the churches of the city during that time.

The Westminster Fellowship which meets at the home of Mr. Maguire each Thursday evening will continue to meet until the close of the school year.

WHAT, NO TEA?

Employees Clamor For Daily Cup When It's Taken Away

As an experiment, Thos. J. Lipton, Inc., tried serving a cup of tea to all employees in their Hoboken plant every afternoon at 3 o'clock. At first some, particularly the men, were inclined to scoff at the idea. Gradually, however, the daily cup of tea came to be taken as a matter of course. Its popularity was graphically proved one day when something went wrong and no tea was forthcoming at the usual hour. The employees were so upset that they finally commissioned one of their number to go to the general manager's office to find out what had happened to their accustomed mid-afternoon refreshment. The management straightened things out, the tea was served, and work went on once more.

For several weeks after the experiment was started careful check of the employees' mental and physical reaction was kept. Results were surprising. The few minutes' interruption in work was more than offset by the increased efficiency of each worker. Now 3 o'clock tea is a fixture at the Lipton plant and when the employees don't get it they ask for it.

AFTERNOON TEA

Afternoon tea can be one of the most delightful of informal social occasions — a leisurely, intimate hour toward the end of a busy day when good friends get together for light refreshment. The most important point in making the event a success is, of course, to serve delicious tea. A poor cup of tea can spoil any party. First, be sure that you purchase a fine quality tea, preferably one that is grown by an experienced organization having its own tea gardens. Lipton's tea meets this requirement perfectly. This will insure your always having a uniformly fine tea of delicious flavor.

Second, be sure the tea is properly made. Have your water boiling in the kettle. Use a china or earthenware teapot, scald it and then put in one teaspoonful of tea for each cup and one for the pot, and then pour the boiling water over the leaves. Allow it to stand for about three minutes and then your perfect tea is ready to be served.

As for food, it should be delicate and simple for dinner comes soon afterward and rich, heavy cakes, etc., are out of place. Small sandwiches, thin slices of cinnamon toast or tea wafers and the like are appropriate.

So there you have it—good friends, delicious tea, simple food... the formula for a perfect afternoon tea.

Ragsdale Appointment as Carrier Permanent

Announcement has been made that appointment of Maynard Ragsdale as carrier on Murray Route 8 has been made permanent. Mr. Ragsdale was given the temporary appointment some time ago and has been carrying the mail on that route for several months.

Mr. Ragsdale was a substitute carrier on Route 8 when it was a winter route only and consolidated with Route 3 during the summer months. A year ago, one of the Almo routes was eliminated and Route 8 out of Murray made a 12 months route. By this arrangement a number of additional patrons were enabled to have R. F. D. service in front of their homes.

Stella Gossip

I was in Murray Saturday afternoon, as usual. Saw Raymond Watson of Washington, D. C. He was in to make a "skat" visit to families of Bob and Gil Watson, down on Waston Creek. Raymond has a Government job.

Saw Clarence Francis, Church of Christ preacher, while in town. Dick Starks called my attention to the large print inscription on the church house. I had made all manner of criticism on the old, little bitty sign.

Had to get within seven feet and put me specs on to see it. The Baptist and Methodist churches carry magnificent inscriptions on their fine buildings.

Now another thing, why don't the Murray city council put large number signs on street corners and number the dwelling houses is past me. "I am lost the captain shouted as he staggered down the stairs."

"Pop-eye" reports whooping cough at Harris Grove. When me and Jim had it long ago, we would go into hysterics and grab "hott" of a "cimon" bush!

Halton Lyles of Concord sharpened Gupion's lawn mower and filed my hand saw. I can't hear and he is tongue-tied, so we composed a "duet".

On account of bad health, Robert Hughes said that he resigns as a committeeman of the Bazell cemetery.

Cole's Camp Ground

I have been wondering what the people thought of Cole's Camp Ground News. I haven't heard any one say they didn't like it. And I don't think there has been any tables or chairs turned over by any one trying to get to read it.

Any way here it is. No weddings to report or any one turning to stone this week.

Ocus Lawrence, Ray Steele and Robert Edwards have their cotton planted. Truman Oliver's early cotton is already breaking through the ground.

Mrs. Drinkard's son, who has been sick for four years, was able to walk over to T. A. Oliver's last week. He said it was the greatest distance he had walked in a good while. We are hoping he will be entirely recovered in a short while.

Mrs. Susie Oliver and Miss Perry visited Mrs. Carlie Steele who is sick. The guests brought Mrs. Steele some beautiful flowers.

The Ford V-8 belonging to Austel Crouse, of near Crouse's Mill, caught fire and burned up Saturday.

A group of Stella-Coldwater folks went to Kinksey Church of Christ last Sunday. Pogue reasoned like a philosopher and George Marine is the very efficient song leader.

Mrs. Era Slaughter, now of Murray, visited her mother, Mrs. Washam, north of Coldwater. Mrs. Washam is in failing health.

I note that some of my best friends sometimes drink whisky which is very unbecoming. Money could not hire me and George to doing whisky. Please quit for my sake. Yes you can, now I am not a ship-shod, "siss-o-tail" person, but just a total abstainer whom you know.

"Grasshopper" wants "Eagle's" picture to put in his melon patch to scare crows away. Yeh! Though his photo ought to be put in the cartoon funny page with an empty toe-sack under his arm.

THE WHOLE NEIGHBORHOOD LOOKS BETTER SINCE WE PAVED WITH CONCRETE

"I WISH we had put concrete on our streets long ago. Aside from being the best to drive on, it keeps itself clean, looks better, and has made our neighborhood more desirable. Property values are up."

That's not half the story. Your own experience tells you that concrete helps you to drive safely; that it effectively checks skidding; that its light-grey surface helps you see at night.

And concrete saves you money because it is moderate in first cost, low in upkeep and long lasting.

Be guided by your experience and observation. When your streets come up for paving—insist on concrete.
